PROFILING FAMOUS WISCONSIN PSYCHICS

“I have not seen as many psychics, healers and intuitive practitioners as there are in Wisconsin. Wisconsin is a Mecca hot spot for this.”

Paul Hutto, psychic reader & hypnotherapist, Janesville

OREGON, Wis.— What color is your aura? What does your future hold? How can your mind heal your body?

Find the Wisconsinites with the answers to those and many of the mystical world’s most sought-after questions in Famous Wisconsin Mystics: Interviews With Practitioners of Intuitive and Psychic Arts, the newest title in publisher Badger Books’ Famous Wisconsin™ series.

Author and licensed clinical social worker Hannah-Heidi Levy showcases more than two dozen of Wisconsin’s most noted and respected Tarot readers, astrologers, palmists, psychics and spiritual healers. These top intuitive and psychic arts practitioners reveal how they develop abilities, receive and relay messages, and deal with skeptics.

Readers also learn what Wisconsin’s mystical professionals say are the significance of dreams, the value of psychic guidance, the meaning of coincidence and the power of prayer. Dream analyst Craig S. Bell, author of Comprehending Coincidence—Synchronicity and Personal Transformations, introduces Levy’s engaging interviews of such mystical Wisconsinites as:

- 1 Handwriting expert and numerologist Kenneth Nelson of Mequon,
- 2 Native American seer Jean Reddemann of New Berlin,
- 2 Astrologer Paula Novatnak of Madison,
- 3 Clairvoyant Sylvia Bright-Green of Sheboygan Falls,
- 4 Tarot card reader, Cherie St. Cyr of Madison,
- 5 Aura photographer The Reverend Phoenix of Tomahawk,
- 6 Dowsing practitioner Anneliese Gabriel Hagemann of Wautoma,
- 7 Palmist Jerry Christianson of New Berlin,
- 8 Psycho-spiritual counselor S. Mir’riam Connelly of Belleville,
- 9 Spiritual reader and healer Chief Blue Hawks Shadow Walker of Mossville,
- 10 Esoteric teacher Ley Guimaraes of Baraboo, and
- 11 Hypnotherapist Sue Joy-Sobota of Madison.
